Dear Jesus, I am a resident of Echo Park and a former City Commissioner. Councilman Mitch O'Farrell is a good friend and has spoken to me and my neighbors in the past.

I'd like to have a meeting to discuss the growing trash and homeless camps around Echo Park, specifically in the Park at the Lake and along Glendale Blvd. Would you be available to visit with us on Wednesday, August 14th? Juan Fregoso in Mitch O'Farrell's office has agreed to this date and he recommended that I reach out to you as well. Hoping you can share how Path works and what we as residents can do to support your work or contact you for incidents in our neighborhoods.

I will host the meeting at my home or at a neighbor's home on Lemoyne Street.

Thank you, ██████████ ██████████

Hi ██████████

Do you think you and I can jump on a call to discuss the meeting? What times work for you?

Dear Jesus, I'm having trouble reaching you. I was just calling the LA Path offices and I think something happened to your phone system— I was disconnected and now subsequent calls won't go through.

Juan, do you happen to have a phone number for Jesus?

Thank you, ██████████
